SUBJECT: Lifting of Suspension of Classes, Office Work and Other Activities in Bicol University Due to Typhoon Paeng and Resumption of the BU Olympics 2022

In view of the improved weather condition, this Office hereby lifts the suspension of classes, office work and other activities as specified in Office Memorandum No. 386 series of 2022 effective November 2, 2022. Likewise, this Office authorizes the resumption of the BU Olympics 2022 on November 3 & 4, 2022 (Thursday and Friday) in order to give time to finish all the unfinished games and events due to the suspension of classes and activities.

During the resumption of the BU Olympics 2022, the faculty members are again directed not to conduct online (synchronous and asynchronous) and onsite (face-to-face) classes nor give new assignments and require output submissions on these two-day activity in order to give the students time to actively participate in the different activities. The coaches, tournament managers, sports focal persons, BU Olympics organizers are further directed to institute measures to ensure the safety of all athletes and participants.

For information, guidance, and wide dissemination of all concerned.
